New Online Features

We have created new features to our website that makes it easier for you to update your resident information and participate in the resident referral program.

It's very simple. Just log onto our website www.FranklinLandings.com and select the "For Resident" link. Click on Resident Referral Program and you are able to fill in the information for a friend or family member you wish to have join our community.

Click on the "update your information" link and you are able to provide us with updated information such as a new phone number or new vehicle information.

There is so much you can do on our website such as pay your rent, submit a service request, post on the community board or get a great recipe from the recipe swap section. Have fun surfing through our site.

strawberry Festival

On Thursday, June 16th from 4pm to 7pm the Franklin Downtown Partnership is hosting their Annual Strawberry Festival.

This is a great event to attend. They will have a sidewalk sale, face painting, games, raffles, free give-aways and museum tours.

For more information call 774-571-3109.
